Undertakings of Author

1. I affirm that the submission is all my (our) own work and agree to keep a copy.
2. I understand that borrowed words attributable to a published author must appear between double quotation marks, with the source of the quote noted in a footnote or reference list if appropriate.
3. I understand that I must seek permission for any pictorial material that is not original (designed by the author) and acknowledge the source in print.
4. I agree to pay the set-up fee if accepted (see 7 stages of publishing).
5. I understand that extra costs will be involved if there are graphics (e.g. illustrations, photos, etc.).
6. I undertake to pay printing costs if I decide to go ahead with printing.
7. I agree to Maygog's right to publish and market my MS and will not publish it in any other form prior to this publication.

I have read and understood the Undertakings of Author above and agree to the conditions.
